The presentation of the Memorandum of Understanding signed between Italia Nostra and the Arma dei Carabinieri was held today in Rome, at Palazzo Montecitorio. After the institutional greetings of Fabio Rampelli, Vice-President of the Chamber, Alberto Bonisoli, Minister of Cultural Heritage and Activities and Sergio Costa, Minister of the Environment, Land and Sea, the works were opened by Antonio Ricciardi, General Commander of the Arma dei carabinieri and Oreste Rutigliano, ex-president of Italia Nostra. "Every second, two square meters of agricultural or natural soil are covered by cement, asphalt or other artificial materials" this is what the ISPRA President, Stefano Laporta, said at the Round Table "Objective Zero Land Consumption and Integrated Protection of the Italian landscape".
